As soon as eligible employees become aware of the need for a personal leave of absence, they should request a leave in writing from their department head. Upon an affirmative recommendation from the department head, the city administrator may approve a personal leave that does not exceed 90 days. Personal leave of up to one year, excluding military service or disability incurred while in the service of the City requires City Council action. The minimum period for a personal leave shall be two weeks. Requests for personal leave will be evaluated based on a number of factors, including anticipated work load requirements, reasons for the requested leave, and staffing considerations during the proposed period of absence.

Benefit accruals, such as vacations, seniority, sick leave, or holiday benefits will be suspended during the leave and will resume upon return to active employment. All City contributions towards employee insurance coverage will cease for a non-medical leave of absence. Reinstatement into the group insurance program will be subject to any conditions imposed by the insurance provider. When personal leave ends, every reasonable effort will be made to return the employee to the same position, if it is available, or to a similar available position for which the employee is qualified. However, the City cannot guarantee reinstatement in all cases.

If an employee fails to report to work promptly at the expiration of the approved leave period, the City will assume the employee has resigned.

- 11.3 Employees who are required to work at a higher classification in this bargaining unit shall receive a wage 10% above their current wage or, if listed on the wage schedule, the wage of the position they are filling.
- 11.4 In the event an employee is promoted to a higher classification, the employee's compensation shall be increased by 5% to the next highest step of the higher classification.
- 11.5 Positions will not be reduced in grade without a compensation/classification study. In the event a position is reduced in grade and the resulting salary recommendation is below the salary of the incumbent in the position, salary increases including cost of living adjustments, may be withheld until the recommended salary level reaches the level of the incumbent's current salary. Any allowable reduction in wage would become effective 90 days after official administrative action.
- 11.6 In the event an employee believes his or her job duties have changed significantly and permanently, the employee or the employee's supervisor may request a formal job description review. Administration will conduct an initial review and provide the employee or supervisor with a written response about whether a position reclassification is warranted within 90 days. If it is warranted, the process for accomplishing the reclassification will be initiated.
- 11.7 No employee wages or benefits shall be reduced by this Labor Agreement.

ARTICLE 12: OVERTIME

- 12.4 Non-exempt FTE employees may elect to take compensatory time off in lieu of overtime pay. Compensatory time shall be earned at the rate of time and one-half (1½), and shall be scheduled at the mutual convenience of the Employer and employee. Compensatory time may be accumulated to a maximum of 60 hours. Employees may carry over 40 hours of compensatory time into the following year.

- 13.2 Organization Representatives. The City will recognize representatives designated by the Union as the grievance representative of the bargaining unit having the duties and responsibilities established by this article.
- 13.3 Processing of Grievance. The aggrieved employee's representative shall be allowed a reasonable amount of time without loss in pay when a grievance is investigated and presented to the Employer during normal work hours provided the employee and employee representative have notified the designated supervisor and that the investigation does not disrupt the normal operation of this workplace.
- 13.4 Grievance Procedure. Grievances shall be processed in the following manner, unless by mutual agreement the Employer and the Union agree to a higher step:

Step 1. An employee claiming a violation concerning the interpretation or application of the Agreement shall, within 20 business days of such alleged violation, present such grievance to the employee's supervisor as designated by the Employer. The supervisor shall respond within 10 business days.

Step 2. If the grievance is not settled in Step 1, it shall be referred in writing to the City Council, or their designee, within 10 business days after the designated supervisor's answer in Step 1. The Employer's representative shall discuss the grievance within 10 business days with the employee and the Union representative at a time mutually agreeable to the parties. If the grievance is settled as a result of such a meeting, the settlement shall be reduced in writing and signed by the Employer representative and the Union. If no settlement is reached, the Employer representative shall give written answer to the Union within 10 business days following their meeting.

Step 3. If the grievance is not settled in Step 2 and the Union desires to appeal, it shall be referred by the Union in writing to the City Council or their designee within 10 business days after the Employer's response in Step 2. A meeting between the City Council or their designee, and the Union shall be held at a time mutually agreeable to the parties. If the grievance is settled as a result of such a meeting, the settlement shall be reduced to writing and signed by the City Council or their designee and the Union. If no settlement is reached, the City Council or their designee shall give written answer to the Union within 10 business days following the meeting.

Step 4. Arbitration. If the grievance is not settled in accordance with the foregoing procedure, either party may refer the grievance to arbitration within 10 business days after the Union's receipt of the Employer's written answer in Step 3, as provided in Minnesota Statutes, Section 179.70. The selection of an arbitrator shall be made in accordance with the "Rules Governing the Arbitration of Grievances" as established by the Public Employment Relations Board.

- a. The arbitrator shall have no right to amend, modify, nullify, ignore, add to or subtract from the terms and conditions of the contract. The arbitrator shall consider and decide only the specific issue(s) submitted in writing by the City and the employee and the Union, and shall have no authority to make a decision on any other issue not so submitted.
- b. The arbitrator's decision shall be submitted in writing within 30 business days following close of the hearing or the submission of briefs, by the parties, whichever be later, unless the parties agree to an extension. The arbitrator shall be without power to make decisions contrary to or inconsistent with or modifying or varying in any way, the application of laws, ordinances or rules and regulations having the force and effect of law. The decision shall be based solely on the arbitrator's interpretation of application of the express terms of the agreement and to the facts of the grievance presented. The parties may, by mutual written agreement agree to submit more than one grievance to the arbitrator provided that each grievance will be considered as a separate issue and each on its own merit.
- c. The fees and expenses for the arbitrator's services and proceedings shall be borne equally by the City and the Union, provided that each party shall be responsible for compensating its own representative and witnesses. If either party desires a verbatim record of the proceedings, it may cause such a record to be made, provided it pays for such a record. If both parties desire a verbatim record of the proceedings, the costs shall be shared equally.

- 13.5 Waiver. If a grievance is not presented within the time limits set forth above, it shall be considered "waived". If a grievance is not appealed to the next step within the specified time limit or any agreed extension thereof, it shall be considered settled on the basis of the Employer's last answer. If the Employer does not answer a grievance or an appeal therefore within the specified time limits or any agreed to extension, the employee and the Union may elect to treat the grievance as denied at that step and appeal the grievance to the next step. The time limit in each step may be extended by mutual written Agreement of the City and the Union in each step. The term "business days" as used in this Article shall mean the days Monday through Friday, exclusive of holidays.

- 15.2 The Employer has the right of final decision in the selection from all applicants (internal and external) to fill jobs based on qualifications, abilities, and experience.
- 15.3 Job vacancies within the designated bargaining unit will be posted internally for 10 business days so that members of the bargaining unit can be considered for such vacancies.
