- 1.3 All personnel policies unless otherwise stated, shall be applied uniformly across the entire bargaining unit.

ARTICLE 2. RECOGNITION

- 2.1 The EMPLOYER recognizes the UNION as the exclusive representative for the employees in the following unit:
- All exempt employees of the County of Washington, Stillwater, Minnesota, whose employment service exceeds the lesser of 14 hours per week or 35 percent of the normal work week and more than 67 work days per year, excluding:
- Non-exempt employees,
 - Employees who, “but for the FLSA salary basis test” qualify as exempt employees,
 - Essential employees,

- 2.3 The UNION recognizes the Washington County Board of Commissioners as the representative of the EMPLOYER and shall meet and negotiate exclusively with such representative, except as may be otherwise specifically provided for in the AGREEMENT. No agreement covering terms and conditions of employment or other matters made between the UNION and the EMPLOYER shall be binding upon the EMPLOYER unless the witnessed signature of the EMPLOYER'S designated bargaining representative is affixed thereon.
- 2.4 The EMPLOYER in accordance with the provisions of Minnesota PELRA, Minn. Stat. §179A.03, Subd. 8, agrees not to enter into any agreements covering terms and conditions of employment with members of the bargaining unit under jurisdiction of this AGREEMENT either individually or collectively which in any way conflict with the terms and conditions set forth in this AGREEMENT, except through the certified representative. No agreement covering terms and conditions of employment or other matters made between the UNION and the EMPLOYER shall be binding upon the UNION unless the witnessed signature of the UNION'S representative is affixed thereon.

ARTICLE 2A. NON-DISCRIMINATION

- 2A.1 No employee shall be discriminated against under the provisions of this AGREEMENT by either the EMPLOYER or UNION on any basis prohibited by law. It is the policy of the EMPLOYER and the UNION to discourage discrimination. Any employee who believes they have been discriminated against as defined above, is encouraged to report the problem immediately to their supervisor, the Human Resources Director and/or the UNION. The provisions of this Section shall be subject to the contractual grievance procedure through Step 3, but are not subject to arbitration. Except with respect to statutes under the jurisdiction of the United States Equal Employment Opportunity Commission, an employee pursuing a statutory remedy is not precluded from also pursuing an appeal to arbitration. If a court of competent jurisdiction rules contrary to the Board of Governors decision, or if the Board of Governors decision is judicially or legislatively overruled, then the underlined portion of this section shall be deleted.

ARTICLE 3. UNION SECURITY

- 3.1 The EMPLOYER agrees to deduct the UNION dues from the pay of those employees who individually request in writing that such deduction be made. The amounts to be deducted shall be certified to the EMPLOYER by a representative of the UNION in itemized bill format, and the aggregate deductions of all employees shall be remitted together with an itemized statement, to the representative by the first of the succeeding month, after such deductions are made.
- 3.2 The UNION may designate certain employees from the bargaining unit to act as stewards and shall, within five (5) days of such designation, certify to the EMPLOYER, in writing, of such choice and the designation of successors to former stewards. The UNION shall also certify to the EMPLOYER a complete and current list of its officers and representative(s).
- 3.3 The EMPLOYER agrees to recognize stewards certified by the UNION as provided in this Section, subject to the following stipulations:
- A. There shall be no more than eight (8) stewards designated at any one time.
 - B. Stewards and other employee UNION officers shall not leave their work stations without prior permission of their designated supervisor(s) and they shall notify their designated supervisor(s) upon return to their work stations. Permission to leave a workstation for UNION business will be limited to the investigation and presentation of grievances to the EMPLOYER. No more than one (1) steward shall be paid time to investigate or present a grievance.
- 3.4 Non-employee representatives of the UNION shall be permitted to come on the premises of the EMPLOYER for the purpose of investigating and discussing grievances if they first notify the EMPLOYER'S designee and provided the UNION representative does not interfere with the work of employees. The UNION shall not use the EMPLOYER'S premises or facilities for UNION business without prior approval of the EMPLOYER.
- 3.5 The EMPLOYER agrees to allow the UNION to use designated bulletin boards in the Government Center cafeteria and in each department for the purpose of posting notices of UNION meetings, UNION elections, UNION election returns, UNION appointments to office, and UNION recreational or social affairs, and any other item specifically approved by the EMPLOYER. The UNION agrees to limit the posting of such notices to the bulletin board space designated by the EMPLOYER.

- 3.6 The UNION shall represent all members of the unit fairly and without regard for UNION membership or non-membership or other factor.
- 3.7 The EMPLOYER agrees to deduct from an employee's wages a PEOPLE deduction as provided for in a written authorization. Such authorization must be executed by the employee and may be revoked by the employee at any time by giving written notice to both the EMPLOYER and the UNION. The EMPLOYER agrees to remit any deductions made pursuant to this provision to the UNION together with an itemized statement showing the name of each employee from whose pay such deductions have been made and the amount deducted during the period covered by the remittance. The UNION shall pay the start-up costs associated with the PEOPLE deduction.

Breaks may be taken in conjunction with the lunch break when receiving prior approval from the EMPLOYER. Unless an employee becomes ill during the second half of a shift and is unable to continue work, a whole half-shift must be worked to entitle an employee to a fifteen (15) minute break for that half-shift. Scheduling of such breaks shall be subject to the duty to provide quality service to the public. Employees working overtime shall be entitled to a fifteen (15) minute break after two hours of overtime and a fifteen (15) minute break for every four hours of work thereafter.

This section shall not apply during the time an employee is compensated for working. On-call hours shall not be considered in the calculation of overtime.

ARTICLE 12. DISCHARGE AND DISCIPLINE

- 12.1 The EMPLOYER shall discipline an employee only for just cause.
- 12.2 An employee may request the presence of a UNION representative when being disciplined. The EMPLOYER shall have no obligation to inform the employee of this right.

- 12.3 Prior to discharging an employee the EMPLOYER shall notify the employee and the UNION, in writing, of the reason(s) for the discharge and the effective date thereof. The employee may request an opportunity to hear the evidence against the employee and to present the employee's side of the story to the EMPLOYER'S representative. The employee may have UNION representation at this meeting if the employee requests such representation. The right to such meeting shall expire at the end of the next scheduled work day of the employee after the notice of discharge is delivered to the employee, unless the EMPLOYER and the employee agree otherwise. The discharge shall not become effective during the period when the meeting may occur. The employee shall remain in paid status during the time between the notice of discharge and the expiration of the meeting.
- 12.4 A copy of a written reprimand to an employee covered by this AGREEMENT shall be forwarded to the UNION upon written request of the employee.

ARTICLE 13. GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE

- 13.1 Definition of a Grievance: A grievance is defined as a dispute or disagreement as to the interpretation or application of the specific terms and conditions of this AGREEMENT.
- 13.2 UNION Representatives: The EMPLOYER will recognize representatives designated by the UNION and the grievance representatives of the bargaining unit having the duties and responsibilities established by this Article. The UNION shall notify the EMPLOYER in writing of the names of the UNION Representatives and of their successors.
- 13.3 Processing a Grievance: It is recognized and accepted by the UNION and the EMPLOYER that the processing of a grievance hereinafter provided is limited by the job duties and responsibilities of the employees and shall therefore be accomplished during normal working hours; only when consistent with such employee's duties and responsibilities. The aggrieved employee and the UNION representatives shall be allowed a reasonable amount of time, without loss of pay, when a grievance is investigated and presented to the EMPLOYER during normal working hours provided that the employee and the UNION Representative have notified and received the approval of the designated supervisor who has determined that such absence is reasonable and would not be detrimental to the work of the EMPLOYER. All grievances must follow the steps designated herein.
- 13.4 An employee, other than a probationary employee, may appeal a disciplinary matter through the contractual grievance procedure or other procedure. The selection of the grievance procedure shall preclude the use of another procedure. The selection of another procedure shall preclude the use of the grievance procedure. Nothing in this section shall preclude the right of the UNION to file a grievance up to Step 3 of the grievance procedure in the event of a concurrent grievance and veterans claim pursuant to Minn. Stat. § 197.46.
- 13.5 Procedure: Grievances, as defined by Article 13.1, shall be resolved in conformance with the following procedure:

STEP 1. An employee claiming a violation concerning the interpretation or application of this AGREEMENT, shall within fourteen (14) calendar days after such alleged violation has occurred (or actual knowledge of the alleged violation or the time when the occurrence of the alleged violation should reasonably has been known), present such grievance, in writing, to the employee's immediate supervisor as designated by the EMPLOYER. The EMPLOYER-designated representative will meet with the UNION and discuss and give, in writing, an answer to such Step 1 grievance within fourteen (14) calendar days after receipt. A grievance not resolved in Step 1 and appealed to Step 2 shall be placed in writing setting forth the nature of the grievance, the facts on which it is based, the provision or provisions of this AGREEMENT allegedly violated, the remedy requested, and shall be appealed to Step 2 within fourteen (14) calendar days after the EMPLOYER-designated representative's final answer in Step 1. Any grievance not appealed in writing to Step 2 by the UNION within fourteen (14) calendar days shall be considered waived.

STEP 2. If appealed, the written grievance shall be presented by the UNION and discussed with the EMPLOYER-designated Step 2 representative. The EMPLOYER-designated representative shall give the UNION the EMPLOYER'S Step 2 answer in writing within fourteen (14) calendar days after receipt of such Step 2 grievance. Such meeting shall be held within fourteen (14) calendar days. A grievance not resolved in Step 2 may be appealed to Step 3 within fourteen (14) calendar days following the EMPLOYER-designated representative's final Step 2 answer.

STEP 3. If appealed, the written grievance shall be presented by the UNION and discussed with the EMPLOYER-designated Step 3 representative. Such meeting may be waived by agreement of the parties. The EMPLOYER-designated representative shall give the UNION the EMPLOYER'S answer in writing within fourteen (14) calendar days after receipt of such Step 3 grievance. A grievance not resolved in Step 3 may be appealed to Step 4 within fourteen (14) calendar days following the EMPLOYER-designated representative final answer in Step 3. Any grievance not appealed in writing to Step 4 by the UNION, within fourteen (14) calendar days shall be considered waived.

By mutual agreement of the EMPLOYER and the UNION, the parties may waive Steps 1 and/or 2 of the Grievance Procedure.

The parties by mutual agreement may agree to petition the Bureau of Mediation Services for the utilization of mediation for suspensions, demotions and terminations.

STEP 4. A grievance unresolved in Step 3 and appealed to Step 4 by the UNION shall be submitted to arbitration and a request shall be made to the Bureau of Mediation Services for a panel of arbitrators (unless the UNION and the EMPLOYER agree on an Arbitrator) within nine (9) months following the EMPLOYER designated representative's final answer in Step 3, subject to the provisions of the Public Employment Labor Relations Act of 1971 as amended. The selection of an arbitrator shall be made in accordance with the "Rules Governing the Arbitration of Grievances" as established by the Bureau of Mediation Services.

- 13.6 Arbitrator's Authority: The arbitrator shall have no right to amend, modify, nullify, ignore, add to, or subtract from the terms and conditions of this Agreement. The arbitrator shall consider and decide only the specific issue(s) submitted in writing by the EMPLOYER and the UNION, and shall have no authority to make a decision on any other issue not so submitted. The arbitrator shall be without power to make decisions contrary to, or inconsistent with, or modifying or varying in any way the application of laws, rules, or regulations having the force and effect of law. The arbitrator's decision shall be submitted in writing within thirty (30) days following close of the hearing or the submission of briefs by the parties, whichever be later, unless the parties agree to an extension. The decision shall be binding on both the EMPLOYER and the UNION and shall be based solely on the arbitrator's interpretation or application of the express terms of this AGREEMENT and to the facts of the grievance presented. The fees and expenses for the arbitrator's services and proceedings shall be borne equally by the County and the UNION, provided, if a grievance is clearly decided in favor of the UNION or the EMPLOYER, then the losing party shall be responsible for all the arbitrator's fees and expenses; and, provided that each party shall be responsible for compensating its own representative and witnesses. If either party desires a verbatim record of the proceedings, it may cause such a record to be made, providing it pays for the record. If both parties desire a verbatim record for the proceedings the cost shall be borne equally.

- 13.7 Waiver: If a grievance is not presented within the time limits set forth above, it shall be considered "waived". If a grievance is not appealed to the next step within the specified time limit or any agreed extension thereof, it shall be considered settled on the basis of the EMPLOYER'S last answer. If the EMPLOYER does not answer a grievance or an appeal thereof within the specified time limits, the UNION may elect to treat the grievance as denied at that step and immediately appeal the grievance to the next step. The time limit in each step may be extended by mutual written agreement of the EMPLOYER and the UNION in each step.

When an employee bumps into a lower classification to avoid a layoff, the employee's new salary shall be the lesser of the employee's present salary or the maximum of the new classification.
- 14.6 An employee being laid off retains seniority in the bargaining unit for a period of two (2) years. Employees shall be recalled from layoff according to their seniority.
