Section 2. The Employer and the Union share a common goal of fostering an amicable and collaborative relationship that will directly facilitate the delivery of efficient, high-quality services to the Employer’s clients and customers at competitive costs by establishing employee wages, benefits, and working conditions. Accordingly, the Employer and the Union recognize that it is the best interest of both parties and the employees that mutual responsibility and respect characterize all dealings between them. The Employer and the Union representatives at all levels will apply the terms of this Agreement fairly in accordance with its intent and meaning and consistent with the Union’s status as exclusive bargaining representative of all employees, as defined in Article 1 and the Employer’s right to manage the business.

ARTICLE 1 – RECOGNITION

The Employer recognizes the Union as the sole and exclusive bargaining representative with respect to wages, hours of employment and other conditions of employment for all full-time and regular part-time food service employees of Sodexo Campus Services at Minnesota State University-Mankato, 7 Centennial Student Union, Mankato, MN, 56001, in the classifications identified in Appendix “A”. The Employer and the Union agree that neither of them will discriminate against or harass any of the Employer's employees because of the employee's race, color, religion, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, age, national origin, disability, veteran status or any other personal characteristic that is protected by applicable law. The Employer and the Union also agree that neither of them will retaliate against any of the Employer's employees who complain of discrimination or harassment or who participate in an investigation regarding discrimination or harassment.

The Employer and the Union agree that each bargaining unit member is also obligated not to discriminate, harass, or retaliate based on any of the protected characteristics described above against any other employee or anyone with whom the employee has contact on the Employer's and/or client's premises during the course of the employee's workday.

This Agreement shall be interpreted to permit the reasonable accommodation of disabled persons as required by state and/or federal law, including the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA). In the event such conflicting accommodation is permitted only if required to comply with said laws, the parties, at either's request, shall meet to discuss the proposed accommodation. The parties agree that any accommodation made by the Employer with the respect to job duties or any other term or condition of employment shall not in any way become applicable to any other individual, class or group of employees, but shall apply only to the person or persons accommodated in the particular situation. The fact that such person or persons was accommodated, and the manner and method of such accommodation, shall be without precedent and, therefore, may not be used or relied upon by any person for any purpose at any time in the future.

Committee members shall be designated, in writing, by each party to the other. Meetings will be held at mutually agreeable times and places so as to apprise the other of problems, concerns and suggestions related to the operations and the work force, all with the aim of promoting better understanding between the parties. Meetings will be held within fifteen (15) calendar days after either party so requests, but not more than one time each month during the academic year. A written agenda shall be established for each meeting and shall be presented between the parties a minimum of forty-eight (48) hours in advance of the scheduled meeting. Said agenda may be amended by mutual agreement at the meeting. Employees shall be paid for lost time at their regular hourly rate for time spent at Labor-Management meetings.

ARTICLE 9 – JOB SAFETY

Section 1. General. It shall be the policy of the Employer that the safety of their employees, the protection of work areas, and the prevention of accidents are continuing and integral parts of their everyday operating responsibility. The Committee shall meet monthly to discuss safety and other matters of concern in an effort to create a better working relationship between the parties, including discussion of duties which could be done by employees on limited duty restrictions. Employees shall be paid at their regular hourly rate for time spent at Safety Committee meetings.

ARTICLE 10 – VISITATION

Section 1. This Article provides a Union visitation process that will ensure the proper balance between operations and the accredited representative visitation to the Employer's public and private business areas for the purposes of conferring with the Employer and the Union Steward and monitoring the administration of this Agreement. Management can withhold access to the premises for legitimate reasons. However, access will not be unreasonably withheld.

Section 2. An authorized representative of the Union will make reasonable attempts to notify the General Manager or authorized designee in advance of arriving on the Employer's or client's premises of their desire to visit. Upon arrival on the Employer's or client's premises, the Union accredited representative will notify the General Manager or authorized designee, in person, of his/her presence prior to speaking to any employee. At that time, the General Manager or authorized designee will inform the Union accredited representative if there are any business reasons for limiting the Union's visitation with employees or visiting the premises. Such visitation shall not interfere with the work of the employees or the service to the customers of the Employer and will follow the client's security regulations.

ARTICLE 11 – UNION STEWARDS

Section 1. There shall be a maximum of three (3) stewards and two (2) alternative stewards. The Union shall advise the Employer in writing of the names of Union Stewards. Up to two (2) Union Stewards may participate in each grievance procedure.

Section 2. A Steward may request to be released from his/her regular duties to investigate grievances on Employer time. Requests to conduct such investigations shall not be unreasonably withheld. The Steward shall contact his/her supervisor in advance to determine a time when such investigation will not interfere with the Steward's work and the work of the person with whom the Steward needs to meet.

Section 3. The Union shall appoint one (1) of the stewards as a "Chief" Steward.

Section 4. If the overall number of bargaining unit employees – either in the total unit, on a specific shift, or in a specific work area—changes significantly, the Parties will meet to discuss the number of Stewards.

ARTICLE 12 – EMPLOYEE BULLETIN BOARDS

The Employer agrees to furnish and maintain suitable bulletin boards in convenient places to be used by the Union. The Union shall limit its posting of notices and bulletins to such bulletin boards.

ARTICLE 13 – SENIORITY

Section 1. Definition. “Seniority” means an employee's length of continuous service with the Employer since his/her last date of hire.

Section 2. Probationary Period. All newly hired employees shall have a ninety (90) calendar day probationary period (exclusive of any periods of lay-off) during which time the Employer shall be sole judge of their qualifications for continuing employment and should their employment be terminated during this period, such termination shall not be subject to the grievance and arbitration provisions of this Agreement. An employee who successfully completes his/her probationary period shall be placed on the seniority list and their seniority date shall be the date that they begin the Union position.

Section 3. Forfeiture of Seniority. Continuous employment shall be broken for any of the following reasons. If such continuous service is broken, the employee shall be considered a new employee for all purposes, if and when rehired:

- a) Resignation or other voluntary termination of employment.
- b) Discharge for just cause.
- c) Absence of three (3) consecutive days without notice to the Employer. This will ordinarily be considered a voluntary quit.
- d) Failure to return to work within ten (10) working days after the Employer gives the employee written notice to return to work, and failure to notify the Employer of their intentions to return to work within five (5) working days after such notice is given. Such notice shall be deemed to have been sufficiently given if sent to the employee by a reliable, documented, means to the last address furnished by the employee to management.
- e) Layoff without recall after a period of one (1) year from the date of layoff, or for a period equal to the employee's length of service, whichever is shorter.
- f) Working during a leave of absence, except for work in conjunction with a leave for Union business.
- g) Any absence beyond an authorized leave of absence.

Section 4. Seniority Lists. Every three (3) months the Employer shall post on the department bulletin board a seniority list showing the continuous service of each employee. A copy of this seniority list shall be furnished to the Local Union at the time it is posted. When two (2) or more employees have the same seniority dates, their respective positions on the seniority list shall be determined by lot.

ARTICLE 14 – PROMOTIONS, JOB VACANCIES

Section 1. When new jobs are available, or when other permanent vacancies occur in the bargaining unit, the Company will post the job, including the general duties and shift involved, for seven (7) consecutive calendar days on the employee bulletin board.

Section 2. Employees desiring to apply for this job will submit their request to management in writing utilizing a form to be provided by the Employer. The successful applicant will be selected on the basis of seniority, provided the employee possesses the ability and qualifications to perform the work required in the new position.

The successful bidders shall be placed in the new job within twenty-one (21) calendar days of the effective date of the position. If the employee is not moved within twenty-one (21) calendar days, the employee will receive the new classification rate of pay for the classification in which the employee bid should it result in an increase of pay.

Section 3. The employee shall be provided a complete and accurate job description detailing the duties of the job at the time (s)he begins work. Each employee currently employed shall be provided a complete and accurate job description detailing the duties of his/her job within two (2) weeks after signing this agreement.

Section 4. If the employee awarded the job decides within fifteen (15) working days of the assignment that he/she does not want the job, the employee shall be returned to the position held before the award. The Employer shall then fill the position according to Section 2 of this Article. The employee shall not be returned to the previous position until the Employer has secured a replacement or fifteen (15) working days after the assignment, whichever comes first.

Section 5. An employee accepting promotion or transfer to a job within the scope of this Agreement and failing to qualify within fifteen (15) working days shall return to the job from which he/she was promoted or transferred.

Section 6. In the event no employee bids on a posted vacancy within the seven (7) consecutive calendar day period, the Employer may fill such vacancy as he sees fit.

Section 7. The Employer may fill vacancies on a temporary basis during the bidding process.

ARTICLE 15 – LAYOFF AND RECALL

Section 1. In the event the Employer finds it necessary to lay off employees due to lack of work, or job abolishment, such layoffs shall be on the basis of inverse order of seniority (juniority) within the classification in which the layoff is necessary.

Section 2. Employees shall be given fourteen (14) calendar days written notice, in cases of layoff and copied to the local union steward or representative.

Section 3. Laid off employees shall be given preference in reemployment if the employee possesses the minimum qualification to do the job. In the event of recall, employees shall be recalled in the reverse order of the layoff.

Section 4. The affected employee(s) may exercise one of the following options:

- a) The employee may bump the least senior employee in the same or lower pay grade within their respective classification, or the employee may bump the least senior employee in their former classification.
- b) The affected employee(s) may opt to fill a vacancy in their own or lower pay grade in any classification if, in the Employer's opinion, within reason, they are qualified and have the ability to perform within that classification.
- c) Employee(s) who have been laid off or displaced shall have the right of recall to any former job classification or any other job classification for which they are minimally qualified in their own or lower pay rate.
- d) When work becomes available in that employee's classification from which they were laid off or displaced, they will be recalled in reverse order of their layoff or displacement.
- e) For the purposes of recall notification the Employer shall notify the employee by written personal notice (receipted) or certified mail (return receipt required) sent to the last known address supplied by the employee. Employees must notify the Employer within five (5) working days of the date the message was received of their intent to report to work after notification. Employees shall report to work within three (3) working days after indicating their willingness to be reinstated.

Section 5. Reduction in Hours. Two (2) weeks after the beginning of each semester, the Employer will establish a schedule for the remainder of the semester. When hours have been reduced, the Employer shall make every effort to reassign senior employees whose hours have been reduced and who desire more hours to job assignments with the greater number of hours, taking into consideration the factors of seniority, individual abilities and the stability of the operation.

Section 6. Shut-down/Start-up. On partial school days, those employees normally assigned the shift shall be scheduled. If the Employer does not need all the employees on a shift on a partial school day, the Employer shall schedule the senior employees assigned that shift to work. When the shift that is needed encompasses two shifts, the most senior employees from each shift shall be scheduled.

ARTICLE 16 – LEAVES

Section 1. Jury Duty. Employees shall be granted a leave of absence with pay, reduced by the amount of any compensation (except mileage and expenses) received from the court, any time they are required to report for jury duty or jury service. At the time an employee is notified he/she may be called for jury duty, he/she shall notify his/her supervisor as soon as possible. The employee shall make every attempt to have jury duty deferred to a period when the food service operation is curtailed.

Section 2. Civic Duty. Employees required to appear before a court or other public body on any matter not related to their work and in which they are not personally involved (as a plaintiff or defendant) and employees elected or appointed to any political or legislative position who request a leave of absence to perform their civic duty shall be granted a leave of absence without pay for the period necessary to fulfill their civic responsibilities.

Section 3. Military Service. Any employee who is a member of a reserve force of the United States or of this State and who is ordered by the appropriate authorities to attend a training program or perform other duties under the supervision of the United States or this State shall be granted an unpaid leave of absence during the period of such activity, up to a maximum of fifteen (15) full work days per year.

Section 4. Medical Leave. Employees will be granted leaves of absence for medical reasons for as long as their attending physicians require, not to exceed a period of six (6) months.

Section 5. Reasonable Purpose. Leaves of absence without pay for a limited period -- not to exceed six (6) months -- shall be granted for any reasonable purpose, and such leaves may be extended or renewed for any reasonable period. Reasonable purpose in each case shall be agreed upon by the Union and the Employer. Request for leaves of absence must be made in writing indicating the reasons therefore and the requested duration of such leave. Requests for leaves of absence must be made as far in advance as possible, with a minimum of two (2) weeks' notice whenever possible.

Section 6. Unpaid Personal Leave Days. Employees may request approval for up to three (3) personal leave days without pay each year (July 1st to June 30th). Request for personal leave must be made in writing to the Employer ten (10) days in advance of the leave, wherever practical, however, in all cases as soon as the employee knows of the need. The supervisor shall respond in writing to all personal leave requests within twenty-four (24) hours. If it is necessary to restrict the number of employees on leave at one time, the more senior employees shall be granted the leave. Leaves will be granted on a "first come - first served" basis, and once leave has been approved, an employee cannot be required to work.

Section 7. Union Business. The Employer will approve written requests for leave without pay, not to exceed one (1) year, for employees elected to any Union office or selected by the Union to do work which takes them from their employment with the Employer.

The Employer will make a reasonable attempt to honor an employee's request for paid vacation time or unpaid union leave to attend their monthly local union meeting.

Section 8. Negotiations. No more than five (5) employees selected to serve on a negotiating committee will be paid for time lost when negotiations are held during their regular shift, such costs to be borne equally by the Employer and the Union. The Union agrees to notify the Employer of the names of employees selected prior to the start of negotiations.

ARTICLE 17 – DISCIPLINE AND DISCHARGE

Section 1. Discipline. Disciplinary action may be imposed upon an employee only for just cause. Any disciplinary action or measures imposed upon an employee may be processed as a grievance through the regular grievance procedure. If the Employer has reason to reprimand an employee, it shall be done in a manner that will not embarrass the employee before other employees or the public. An employee shall be permitted and the Employer is strongly encouraged to advise the employee of their right to have a Shop Steward or Union Representative at any meeting with the Employer, or its agents, which meeting is for the purpose of investigating alleged misconduct by the employee that might be the basis for, or which may result in, discharge, suspension or other disciplinary action with respect to the employee. If the employee indicates that he/she wishes a steward to be present, and one is not available, the disciplinary meeting shall be temporarily postponed unless it is suspension or suspension with intent to discharge. In such cases, another Union Representative of the employee's choosing shall be asked to sit in as a witness. If it is not a suspension or suspension with intent to discharge, the discipline shall be delayed until the employee's next shift.

Minor infractions, irregularities, or deficiencies shall first be privately brought to the attention of the employee.

Upon written request of an employee, the contents of his/her personnel records shall be disclosed to the employee and/or his/her Union representative and/or his/her legal counsel. Disciplinary action or measures shall include only the following and may commence at any step of the process depending upon the severity of the offense:

- a) Oral Reprimand (documented in writing);
- b) Written Reprimand;
- c) Suspension (notice to be given in writing);
- d) Discharge (notice to be given in writing);

The Union shall receive a copy of all written disciplinary actions and the reasons therefore.

Section 2. Discharge. The Employer shall not discharge any employee without just cause. The Union shall have the right to take up the suspension and/or discharge of an employee as a grievance at the second step of the grievance procedure and the matter shall be handled in accordance with this procedure through the arbitration step if deemed necessary by either party.

Any employee found to be unjustly suspended or discharged shall be reinstated with full compensation in cash for all lost time and with full restoration of all other rights and conditions of employment except as may be otherwise agreed to by the parties or as may be otherwise determined by an arbitrator.

Section 3. Personnel Records. Oral and written reprimands, or a written record of a suspension shall remain in the employee's personnel record, but will not be utilized for purposes of progressive discipline, after one (1) year provided that no further disciplinary action has been entered into the employee's personnel record during the year.

ARTICLE 18 – SETTLEMENT OF DISPUTES

Section 1. Grievance Procedure. Any grievance or dispute which may arise between the parties, including the application, meaning or interpretation of this Agreement, shall be settled in the following manner.

STEP 1. The grievance shall be submitted by the employee and/or union steward and/or Union Business Representative to the General Manager (or their designee), in writing, within fourteen (14) calendar days of when the employee and/or Union knew or should have known of the events giving rise to the grievance. However, any liability situation shall not begin until the date on which the grievance is filed.

The grievance shall set forth the alleged facts of the grievance, the specific Article(s) and Section(s) alleged to have been violated, and the remedy that is being sought.

After receiving the written grievance, the General Manager or designee, representatives of the Union, the shop steward, and the employee or employees involved, will meet to discuss the grievance within seven (7) calendar days of receipt of the written grievance. Thereafter, the General Manager or designee shall provide a written response to the Union representative within seven (7) calendar days after the meeting.

STEP 2. If not resolved satisfactorily at Step 1, the grievance shall be submitted in writing to the District Manager or their designee by the Union's Representative or their designee within seven (7) calendar days after receipt of the response at Step 1. Either the District Manager or their designee or the Union shall request a meeting, which may be conducted telephonically if mutually agreed, for the purpose of resolving the grievance prior to the Employer's final decision.

The meeting shall be held within (7) seven calendar days of being requested, and may include the grievant, the chief union steward, one additional employee and the Union business representative. Employees attending the meeting will be paid for any lost time.

Within seven (7) calendar days of the meeting the Employer shall deliver to the Union a written reply, which shall provide for a decision in the matter and the reason(s) for the decision.

STEP 3. Grievance Mediation (Optional). If no satisfactory settlement has been agreed to at the conclusion of Step 2, then the Union and the Employer may mutually agree to refer the matter to grievance mediation conducted by a mediator from the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service (FMCS) in accordance with the FMCS grievance mediation rules. The request for grievance mediation must be filed with FMCS within fourteen (14) calendar days following the District Managers' Step 2 written answer.

STEP 4. Arbitration. If the grievance is still unsettled after either Step 2 or Step 3, then the Union may, within sixty (60) calendar days after the conclusion of either Step 2 or Step 3, serve notice of its intention to submit the issue to arbitration by giving written notice to the other party.

The selection of an arbitrator and the conduct of any arbitration shall be in accordance with the voluntary labor arbitration rules of the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service.

The decision of the arbitrator shall be final and binding on the Employer, the Union and the employee or employees involved, and the arbitrator shall be requested to issue his/her decision within thirty (30) calendar days after the conclusion of testimony and argument.

Expenses for the arbitrator's services and the proceedings shall be borne equally by the Employer and the Union. However, each party shall be responsible for compensating its own representatives and outside witnesses. If either party desires a verbatim record of the proceedings, it may cause such a record to be made, providing it pays for the record and makes copies available at a reasonable cost to the other party and the arbitrator.

The jurisdiction and the authority of the arbitrator of the grievance and his opinion and award shall be confined exclusively to the interpretation of the expressed provisions of this Agreement and he shall have no authority to add to, detract from, alter, amend, or modify any provisions of this Agreement.

Section 2. Time Limits. The time limitation set forth in this Article may be waived, without prejudice to either party, only upon mutual written agreement between the Union and the Employer.

ARTICLE 19 – HOURS OF WORK

Section 1. The “workweek” shall consist of a seven (7)-day payroll period beginning at 12:00 a.m. Friday and ending at 11:59 p.m. Thursday. The parties understand and agree that the beginning and end of the workweek may change as a result of changes to the Employer’s payroll or timekeeping systems. The Employer will contact the union at least two weeks before any change in the payroll period.

Section 2. The text in this Article shall not establish a guaranteed work schedule, number of days or hours to be worked in a work week, or the hours to be worked in a day.

Section 3. All employees covered by this Agreement shall be granted one (1) fifteen (15) minute paid break for each four (4) hours worked. Breaks will be scheduled by the manager. Employees who work five (5) or more hours in a day shall receive a one-half (1/2) hour unpaid meal break to be scheduled, as close as possible to the mid-point of the hours, by the manager or designee.

Section 4. The Employer shall provide a free, wholesome meal as determined by management.

First year longevity bonus

On a trial basis beginning at the start of the 2022-2023 academic year, newly hired employees that return to work after the summer lay-off (including newly hired employees that work during the summer months) will receive a one-time longevity bonus of two hundred and fifty dollars ($250.00) processed in their regular paycheck effective the first payroll period in October. Employees must be active on payroll at the time that the longevity bonus is paid to be eligible.

The Employer and the Union will meet and confer regarding the implementation and success of the one-year longevity bonus. The Employer will continue or discontinue the one-year longevity bonus at their sole discretion.
